BANCO BILBAO VIZCAYA ARGENTARIA, S.A.

(incorporated with limited liability in Spain)
(as “Guarantor”)

These Notes are not intended for, and are not to be offered to, the public in any jurisdiction of the EEA.

Any person making or intending to make an offer of the Notes may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or the Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or to supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive, in each case, in relation to such offer.

Neither the Issuer nor the Dealer has authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Notes in any other circumstances.

MIFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE TARGET MARKET - Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes, taking into account the five categories in item 18 of the Guidelines published by ESMA on 5 February 2018, has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties, professional clients and retail clients, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); and (ii) the following channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate: investment advice, portfolio management and non advised sales, subject to the distributor's suitability and appropriateness obligations under MiFID II, as applicable. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

PART A - CONTRACTUAL TERMS

Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the General Conditions of the Notes (and, together with the applicable Annex(es), the “Conditions”) set forth in the Base Prospectus dated 18 June 2019 and the supplements to it dated 9 August 2019, 31 October 2019 and 14 November 2019 which together constitute a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (the “Base Prospectus”). This document constitutes the Final Terms of the Notes described herein for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus. Full information on the Issuer, the Guarantor and the offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of these Final Terms and the Base Prospectus. An issue specific summary of the Notes (which comprises the summary in the Base Prospectus as amended to reflect the provisions of these Final Terms) is annexed to these Final Terms. The Base Prospectus has been published on the websites of Euronext Dublin (www.ise.ie) and the Central Bank of Ireland (<http://www.centralbank.ie>).

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or under any state securities laws, and the Notes may not be offered, sold, transferred, pledged, delivered, redeemed, directly or indirectly, at any time within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, or by, any U.S. person. Furthermore, the Notes do not constitute, and have not been marketed as, contracts of sale of a commodity for future delivery (or options thereon) subject to the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the “CEA”), and trading in the Notes has not been approved by the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “CFTC”) pursuant to the CEA, and no U.S. person may at any time trade or maintain a position in the Notes. For a description of the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes, see “Subscription and Sale” in the Base Prospectus.

As used herein, “U.S. person” includes any “U.S. person” or person that is not a “non-United States person” as either such term may be defined in Regulation S or in regulations adopted under the CEA.

7.5 Non-Exempt Offer: Not applicable

The Issuer is only offering to and selling to the Dealer pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Programme Agreement. All sales to persons other than the Dealer will be made by the Dealer or persons to whom they sell, and/or otherwise make arrangements with, including the Financial Intermediaries. The Issuer shall not be liable for any offers, sales or purchase of Notes by the Dealer or Financial Intermediaries in accordance with the arrangements in place between any such Dealer or any such Financial Intermediary and its customers.

Financial intermediaries seeking to rely on the Base Prospectus and any Final Terms to resell or place Notes as permitted by article 3.2 of the 2010 PD Amending Directive must obtain prior written consent from the Issuer and the Guarantor; nothing herein is to be understood as a waiver of such requirement for prior written consent.

SUMMARY OF NOTES

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These Elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7). This Summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for the Notes and the Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in a summary because of the type of securities and issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element should be included in the summary explaining why it is not applicable.

Section A– Introduction and warnings

Element	Title
A.1	Introductions and warnings:	This summary should be read as an introduction to the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms. Any decision to invest in any Notes should be based on a consideration of the Base Prospectus as a whole, including any documents incorporated by reference, and the Final Terms. Where a claim relating to information contained in the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms is brought before a court in a Member State of the European Economic Area, the plaintiff may, under the national legislation of the Member State where the claim is brought, be required to bear the costs of translating the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to the Issuer or the Guarantor in any such Member State solely on the basis of this summary, including any translation of it, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms or, following the implementation of the relevant provisions of Directive 2010/73/EU in the relevant Member State, it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes.

C.11	Listing and admission to trading:	Application has been made by the Issuer (or on its behalf) for the Notes to be admitted to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin.
C.15	Description of how the value of the Note is affected by the value of the underlying asset:	The Interest Amount, Final Redemption Amount and Automatic Early Redemption Amount (in each case, if any) payable in respect of the Notes are calculated by reference to the relevant underlying set out in Element C.20 (A description of the type of the underlying and where the information of the underlying can be found) below. Please also see Element C.9 (Payment Features) and Element C.10 (Derivative component in the interest payments). These Notes are derivative securities and their value may go down as well as up. If the Worst Value on any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date is greater than or equal to the corresponding Automatic Early Redemption Trigger then the Notes will redeem at the corresponding AER Percentage on the corresponding Automatic Early Redemption Date. If the Worst Value on the Redemption Valuation Date is below 55 per cent. the risk of loss is similar to that of a direct investment in the Reference Item with the worst performance on the Redemption Valuation Date The Notes are securities with a high degree of risk, because they can incorporate complex structures and their performance may be linked to the performance of, without limitation, one or more, or a combination of, underlying shares or depositary receipts, indices, rates of interest, other rates, foreign exchange rates, exchange traded fund shares, funds, inflation indices and/or entities (“Reference Item Linked Notes”). Amounts payable (whether in respect of principal and/or interest) or deliverable will be dependent upon the performance of the Reference Item, or a combination of Reference Items, which themselves may contain substantial credit, interest rate, foreign exchange, correlation, time value, political and/or other risks. These risks include, among other things, the possibility that the holder of a Reference Item Linked Note could lose all or a substantial portion of the principal of such Note (whether payable at maturity or upon redemption or repayment), and that no interest may be payable on such Notes.
C.16	Maturity date of the Notes:	The Maturity Date of the Notes is 28 November 2023, subject to adjustment.

Element	Title
C.17	Settlement procedure of derivative securities:	The Notes will be settled on the applicable Maturity Date at the relevant amount per Note.
C.18	Return on derivative securities:	The principal return is illustrated in Element C.9 (Payment Features) above. The interest return is illustrated in Element C.10 (Derivative component in the interest payments) above. These Notes are derivative securities and their value may go down as well as up.
C.19	Final reference price of the underlying:	The final reference price of the underlying described in Element C.20 (A description of the type of the underlying and where the information of the underlying can be found) below shall be determined on the date(s) for valuation specified in C.9 (Payment Features) above subject to adjustment including that such final valuation may occur earlier in some cases
C.20	A description of the type of the underlying and where the information of the underlying can be found:	The underlying is a basket of Shares k=1, Micron Technology Inc: see Bloomberg Code: MU UW <Equity> k=2, Kohls Corp: see Bloomberg Code: KSS UN <Equity> k=3, Twitter Inc: see Bloomberg Code: TWTR UN <Equity> k=4, ALEXION PHARMACEUTICALS INC: see Bloomberg Code: ALXN UW <Equity>

Section D – Risks

Element	Title
D.2	Key risks regarding the Issuer and the Guarantor:	In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer and the Guarantor may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer and the Guarantor becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer and the Guarantor may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which they currently deem not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's and the Guarantor's control. The Issuer and the Guarantor have identified a number of factors which could materially adversely affect their businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes. These factors include:
		Risk Factors relating to the Issuer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Issuer is dependent on the Guarantor to make payments on the Notes. • Certain considerations in relation to the forum upon insolvency of the Issuer. Risk Factors that may affect the Guarantor's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Guarantee

		Macroeconomic Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economic conditions in the countries where the Group operates could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Since the Guarantor's loan portfolio is highly concentrated in Spain, adverse changes affecting the Spanish economy could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition. • The Group may be adversely affected by political events in Catalonia. • Any decline in the Kingdom of Spain's sovereign credit ratings could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. • The Group may be materially adversely affected by developments in the emerging markets where it operates. • The Group may be adversely affected by the United Kingdom's planned exit from the European Union. • The Group's business could be adversely affected by global political developments, particularly with regard to U.S. policies that affect Mexico. • The Group's earnings and financial condition have been, and its future earnings and financial condition may continue to be, materially affected by asset impairment. • Exposure to the real estate market makes the Group vulnerable to developments in this market. Legal, Regulatory and Compliance Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group is subject to substantial regulation and regulatory and governmental oversight. Changes in the regulatory framework could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations and financial condition. • Increasingly onerous capital requirements may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Bail-in and write-down powers under the BRRD and the SRM Regulation may adversely affect the Group's Business and the value of any securities it may issue. • Any failure by the Guarantor and/or the Group to comply with its MREL could have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Increased taxation and other burdens imposed on the financial sector may have a material adverse effect on BBVA's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Contributions for assisting in the future recovery and resolution of the Spanish banking sector may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Regulatory developments related to the EU fiscal and banking union may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • The Group's anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism policies may be circumvented or otherwise not be sufficient to prevent all money laundering or terrorism financing.

Element	Title
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group is exposed to risk in relation to compliance with anti-corruption laws and regulations and sanctions programmes. • Local regulation may have a material effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. • Reform of LIBOR and EURIBOR and Other Interest Rate, Index and Commodity Index "Benchmarks". • European Market Infrastructure Regulation and Markets in Financial Instruments Directive. • The Group is party to a number of legal and regulatory actions and proceedings. • The Guarantor may be affected by actions that are incompatible with the Group's ethics and compliance standards and by the Group's failure to timely detect or remedy any such actions. Liquidity and Financial Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BBVA has a continuous demand for liquidity to fund its business activities. BBVA may suffer during periods of market-wide or firm-specific liquidity constraints, and liquidity may not be available to it even if its underlying business remains strong. • Withdrawals of deposits or other sources of liquidity may make it more difficult or costly for the Group to fund its business on favourable terms or cause the Group to take other actions or even linked to the exercise of any Spanish Bail-in Power • Implementation of internationally accepted liquidity ratios might require changes in business practices that affect the profitability of the Guarantor's business activities. • The Group's businesses are subject to inherent risks concerning borrower and counterparty credit quality which have affected and are expected to continue to affect the recoverability and value of assets on the Group's balance sheet • The Group's business is particularly vulnerable to volatility in interest rates. • The Group has a substantial amount of commitments with personnel considered wholly unfunded due to absence of qualifying plan assets. • BBVA and certain of its subsidiaries are dependent on their credit ratings and any reduction of their credit ratings could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Highly-indebted households and corporations could endanger the Group's asset quality and future revenues. • The Group depends in part upon dividends and other funds from subsidiaries. Business and Industry Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group faces increasing competition in its business lines. • The Group faces risks related to its acquisitions and divestitures. • The Group's ability to maintain its competitive position depends significantly on its international operations, which expose the Group to foreign exchange, political and other risks in the countries in which it operates, which could cause an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Element	Title
		Reporting and Other Financial and Operational Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Weaknesses or failures in the Group's internal processes, systems and security could materially adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations, and could result in reputational damage. • The financial industry is increasingly dependent on information technology systems, which may fail, may not be adequate for the tasks at hand or may no longer be available. • The Group faces security risks, including denial of service attacks, hacking, social engineering attacks targeting its partners and customers, malware intrusion or data corruption attempts, and identity theft that could result in the disclosure of confidential information, adversely affect its business or reputation, and create significant legal and financial exposure. • The Group could be the subject of misinformation. • BBVA's financial statements are based in part on assumptions and estimates which, if inaccurate, could cause material misstatement of the results of its operations and financial position. • The Group's financial results regulatory capital and ratios may be negatively affected by changes to accounting standards.
D.3	Key risks regarding the Notes:	There are a number of risks associated with an investment in the Notes. These risks include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notes may be redeemed prior to their scheduled maturity. • Claims of Holders under the Notes are effectively junior to those of certain other creditors. • Spanish Tax Rules may impose withholding tax in certain circumstances (subject to certain exceptions) and neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor is obliged to pay additional amounts in such event. • The procedure for provision of information described in the Base Prospectus is a summary only. • The conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors. • The Issuer of the Notes may be substituted without the consent of the Noteholders. • The Guarantor of the Notes may be substituted without the consent of the Noteholders. • The Notes may be subject to withholding taxes in circumstances where the Issuer is not obliged to make gross up payments and this would result in holders receiving less interest than expected and could significantly adversely affect their return on the Notes. • The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice. • Reliance on DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg procedures. • Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes.

Element	Title
		Risks relating to the structure of particular Notes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investors may lose the original invested amount. • The relevant market value of the Notes at any time is dependent on other matters in addition to the credit risk of the Issuer and Guarantor and the performance of the relevant Reference Item(s). • If a Reference Item Linked Note includes Market Disruption Events or Failure to Open of an Exchange and the Calculation Agent determines such an event has occurred, any consequential postponement of any Strike Date, Valuation Date, Observation Date or Averaging Date may have an adverse effect on the Notes. • There are risks associated with Notes where denominations involve integral multiples. • If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, that investor will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of its holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes • There may be risks associated with any hedging transactions the Issuer enters into. Generic Risk Factors that are associated with Notes that are linked to Reference Item(s). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There are risks relating to Reference Item Linked Notes. • It may not be possible to use the Notes as a perfect hedge against the market risk associated with investing in a Reference Item. • There may be regulatory consequences to the Noteholder of holding Reference Item Linked Notes. • There are specific risks with regard to Notes with a combination of Reference Items. • A Noteholder does not have rights of ownership in the Reference Item(s). • The past performance of a Reference Item is not indicative of future performance. There are a number of risks associated with Notes that are linked to one or more specific types of Reference Items. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There are specific risks relating to Equity Linked Notes. Market Factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell his Notes. • There may be price discrepancies with respect to the Notes as between various dealers or other purchasers in the secondary market. Potential Conflicts of Interest

Element	Title
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Issuer, the Guarantor and their respective affiliates may take positions in or deal with Reference Item(s). • The Calculation Agent, which will generally be the Guarantor or an affiliate of the Guarantor, has broad discretionary powers which may not take into account the interests of the Noteholders. • The Issuer and/or the Guarantor may have confidential information relating to the Reference Item and the Notes. • The Guarantor's securities may be/form part of a Reference Item. • Potential conflicts of interest relating to distributors or other entities involved in the offer or listing of the Notes. Calculation Agent powers should be considered
D.6	Risk warning:	See D.3 (“Key risks regarding the Notes”) above Investors may lose the entire value of their investment or part of it in the event of the insolvency of the Issuer or if it is otherwise unable or unwilling to repay the Notes when repayment falls due or as a result of the performance of the relevant Reference Items

Section E – Offer
