issued pursuant to the €40,000,000,000 Programme for the issue of Notes arranged by

KBC Bank NV

Any person making or intending to make an offer of the Notes may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive, in each case in relation to such offer.

Neither the Issuer nor any Dealer has authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Notes in any other circumstances.

The expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive, to the extent implemented in the Relevant Member State), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State and the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

PART A
CONTRACTUAL TERMS, LISTING AND RATING

Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the Conditions set forth in the Base Prospectus dated 3 July 2013 which together constitutes a base prospectus for the purposes of Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (the “Prospectus Directive”). This document constitutes Final Terms of the Notes described herein for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and must be read in conjunction with such Base Prospectus. Full information on the Issuer and the offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of these Final Terms and the Base Prospectus. The Base Prospectus is available for viewing at the registered office of the Issuer and copies may be obtained from the registered office of the Issuer.

Prospective purchasers of the Notes should ensure that they understand the nature of the Notes and the extent of their exposure to risk and that they consider the suitability of the Notes as an investment in the light of their own circumstances and financial condition. Prospective purchasers should conduct their own investigations and, in deciding whether or not to purchase Notes, prospective purchasers should form their own views of the merits of an investment related to the [currencies, shares, etc.] based upon such investigations and not in reliance upon any information given in this document.

ANNEX - ISSUE SPECIFIC SUMMARY

This summary relates to the Notes described in the final terms (the “Final Terms”) to which this summary is annexed. This summary contains that information from the summary set out in the base prospectus dated 3 July 2013 (the “Base Prospectus”) which is relevant to the Notes together with relevant information from the Final Terms. This summary must be read as an introduction to the Base Prospectus and is provided as an aid to investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes, but is not a suitable substitute for the Base Prospectus. Any decision to invest in the Notes should be based on a consideration of the Base Prospectus as a whole, including any documents incorporated by reference, and the Final Terms. Following the implementation of the relevant provisions of the Prospectus Directive (2003/71/EC, as amended) in each Member State of the European Economic Area, no civil liability will attach to those persons who have tabled this summary in any such Member State solely on the basis of this summary, including any translation thereof herein, unless it is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms, key information (as defined in Article 2.1(s) of the Prospectus Directive) in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes. Where a claim relating to information contained in the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms is brought before a court in a Member State of the European Economic Area, the plaintiff may, under the national legislation of the Member State where the claim is brought, be required to bear the costs of translating the Base Prospectus before the legal proceedings are initiated.

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as Elements. These elements are numbered in Sections A - E (A.1-E.7).

This Summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for this type of securities and issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements.

Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of “not applicable”.

Section A - Introduction and Warnings

A.1	Warning	This summary should be read as an introduction to the Base Prospectus and Final Terms. Any decision to invest in the securities should be based on consideration of the Base Prospectus and Final Terms as a whole by the investor. Where a claim relating to the information contained in the Base Prospectus and Final Terms is brought before a court, the plaintiff investor might, under the national legislation of a Member State, have to bear the costs of translating the Base Prospectus and Final Terms before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches only to those persons who have tabled the summary, including any translation thereof, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and Final Terms or it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and Final Terms, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the securities.
A.2	Consent by the issuer or person responsible for drawing up the prospectus to the use of the	The Issuer does not consent to the use of the Base Prospectus and Final Terms by any person in connection with any offer of Notes that is not within an exemption from the requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Directive (a “ Non-exempt Offer ”) in any Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each a “ Relevant Member State ”).
