SUMMARY OF NOTES

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as “Elements”. These Elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7). This Summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for the Notes and the Issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements. Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in a summary because of the type of securities and issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element should be included in the summary explaining why it is not applicable.

Section A– Introduction and warnings

Element	Title
A.1	Introductions and warnings:	This summary should be read as an introduction to the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms. Any decision to invest in any Notes should be based on a consideration of the Base Prospectus as a whole, including any documents incorporated by reference, and the Final Terms. Where a claim relating to information contained in the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms is brought before a court in a Member State of the European Economic Area, the plaintiff may, under the national legislation of the Member State where the claim is brought, be required to bear the costs of translating the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms before the legal proceedings are initiated. Civil liability attaches to the Issuer or the Guarantor in any such Member State solely on the basis of this summary, including any translation of it, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms or, following the implementation of the relevant provisions of Directive 2010/73/EU in the relevant Member State, it does not provide, when read together with the other parts of the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms, key information in order to aid investors when considering whether to invest in the Notes.
A.2	Consent by the Issuer:	Not Applicable

Section D – Risks

Element	Title
D.2	Key risks regarding the Issuer and the Guarantor:	In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer and the Guarantor may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There is a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer and the Guarantor becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer and the Guarantor may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which they currently deem not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's and the Guarantor's control. The Issuer and the Guarantor have identified a number of factors which could materially adversely affect their businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes. These factors include:
		Risk Factors relating to the Issuer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Issuer is dependent on the Guarantor to make payments on the Notes.

Element	Title
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certain considerations in relation to the forum upon insolvency of the Issuer. Risk Factors that may affect the Guarantor's ability to fulfil its obligations under the Guarantee Macroeconomic Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economic conditions in the countries where the Group operates could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Since the Guarantor's loan portfolio is highly concentrated in Spain, adverse changes affecting the Spanish economy could have a material adverse effect on its financial condition. • The Group may be adversely affected by political events in Catalonia. • Any decline in the Kingdom of Spain's sovereign credit ratings could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. • The Group may be materially adversely affected by developments in the emerging markets where it operates. • The Group may be adversely affected by the United Kingdom's planned exit from the European Union. • The Group's business could be adversely affected by global political developments, particularly with regard to U.S. policies that affect Mexico. • The Group's earnings and financial condition have been, and its future earnings and financial condition may continue to be, materially affected by asset impairment. • Exposure to the real estate market makes the Group vulnerable to developments in this market. Legal, Regulatory and Compliance Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group is subject to substantial regulation and regulatory and governmental oversight. Changes in the regulatory framework could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations and financial condition. • Increasingly onerous capital requirements may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Bail-in and write-down powers under the BRRD and the SRM Regulation may adversely affect the Group's Business and the value of any securities it may issue. • Any failure by the Guarantor and/or the Group to comply with its MREL could have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Increased taxation and other burdens imposed on the financial sector may have a material adverse effect on BBVA's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Contributions for assisting in the future recovery and resolution of the Spanish banking sector may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of operations. • Regulatory developments related to the EU fiscal and banking union may have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition and results of

		operations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group's anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism policies may be circumvented or otherwise not be sufficient to prevent all money laundering or terrorism financing. • The Group is exposed to risk in relation to compliance with anti-corruption laws and regulations and sanctions programmes. • Local regulation may have a material effect on the Guarantor's business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. • Reform of LIBOR and EURIBOR and Other Interest Rate, Index and Commodity Index “Benchmarks”. • European Market Infrastructure Regulation and Markets in Financial Instruments Directive. • The Group is party to a number of legal and regulatory actions and proceedings. • The Guarantor may be affected by actions that are incompatible with the Group’s ethics and compliance standards and by the Group’s failure to timely detect or remedy any such actions. Liquidity and Financial Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BBVA has a continuous demand for liquidity to fund its business activities. BBVA may suffer during periods of market-wide or firm-specific liquidity constraints, and liquidity may not be available to it even if its underlying business remains strong. • Withdrawals of deposits or other sources of liquidity may make it more difficult or costly for the Group to fund its business on favourable terms or cause the Group to take other actions or even linked to the exercise of any Spanish Bail-in Power • Implementation of internationally accepted liquidity ratios might require changes in business practices that affect the profitability of the Guarantor’s business activities. • The Group’s businesses are subject to inherent risks concerning borrower and counterparty credit quality which have affected and are expected to continue to affect the recoverability and value of assets on the Group’s balance sheet • The Group's business is particularly vulnerable to volatility in interest rates. • The Group has a substantial amount of commitments with personnel considered wholly unfunded due to absence of qualifying plan assets. • BBVA and certain of its subsidiaries are dependent on their credit ratings and any reduction of their credit ratings could materially and adversely affect the Group’s business, financial condition and results of operations. • Highly-indebted households and corporations could endanger the Group's asset quality and future revenues. • The Group depends in part upon dividends and other funds from subsidiaries. Business and Industry Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group faces increasing competition in its business lines. • The Group faces risks related to its acquisitions and divestitures.

Element	Title
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Group's ability to maintain its competitive position depends significantly on its international operations, which expose the Group to foreign exchange, political and other risks in the countries in which it operates, which could cause an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations. Reporting and Other Financial and Operational Risks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Weaknesses or failures in the Group's internal processes, systems and security could materially adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations, and could result in reputational damage. • The financial industry is increasingly dependent on information technology systems, which may fail, may not be adequate for the tasks at hand or may no longer be available. • The Group faces security risks, including denial of service attacks, hacking, social engineering attacks targeting its partners and customers, malware intrusion or data corruption attempts, and identity theft that could result in the disclosure of confidential information, adversely affect its business or reputation, and create significant legal and financial exposure. • The Group could be the subject of misinformation. • BBVA's financial statements are based in part on assumptions and estimates which, if inaccurate, could cause material misstatement of the results of its operations and financial position. • The Group's financial results regulatory capital and ratios may be negatively affected by changes to accounting standards.
D.3	Key risks regarding the Notes:	There are a number of risks associated with an investment in the Notes. These risks include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notes may be redeemed prior to their scheduled maturity. • Claims of Holders under the Notes are effectively junior to those of certain other creditors. • Spanish Tax Rules may impose withholding tax in certain circumstances (subject to certain exceptions) and neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor is obliged to pay additional amounts in such event. • The procedure for provision of information described in the Base Prospectus is a summary only. • The conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors. • The Issuer of the Notes may be substituted without the consent of the Noteholders. • The Guarantor of the Notes may be substituted without the consent of the Noteholders. • The Notes may be subject to withholding taxes in circumstances where the Issuer is not obliged to make gross up payments and this would result in holders receiving less interest than expected and could significantly adversely affect their return on the Notes. • The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice.
