Information Concerning Investment Risk

Securityholders and prospective purchasers of Securities should ensure that they understand the nature of the Securities and the extent of their exposure to risk and that they consider the suitability of the Securities as an investment in the light of their own circumstances and financial condition. An investment in the Securities entails risks not associated with investments in a conventional debt security, such as described in section entitled "Risk associated with the Securities generally" on pages 17 to 28 of the Base Prospectus. The performance of the Shares will affect the nature and value of the investment return on the Securities. Securityholders and prospective purchasers of Securities should conduct their own investigations and, in deciding whether or not to purchase Securities, prospective purchasers should form their own views of the merits of an investment related to the Underlying based upon such investigations.

Given the highly specialised nature of these Securities, the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Distribution Agent consider that they are only suitable for sophisticated investors who are able to determine for themselves the risk of an investment linked to the Underlying and who are able to bear the loss of any amount invested. Consequently, if you are not such an investor you should not consider purchasing these Securities without taking detailed advice from a specialised professional adviser.

Prospective purchasers should note the United States Taxation set out on pages 138 to 145 of the Base Prospectus. Prospective purchasers are hereby notified that sellers of the Securities may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A.

Saudi Arabian regulatory practices: The Share Issuer is governed by the laws of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia ("KSA"), and in particular, the KSA Capital Market Law ("CML"), and the regulations enacted thereunder, and are regulated by the KSA Capital Markets Authority ("CMA"). The regulatory practices of the CMA may not necessarily be similar to the regulatory practices in other jurisdictions. In particular, given the lack of formal system of official reporting and/or official interpretation, and the absence of a system of binding precedent in the KSA, prospective investors or investors should note that the Share Issuer may discharge its obligations, and the CMA may exercise its authority in respect of the Share Issuer in a manner that may impact the value of the Securities.

Emerging Markets Risk: Fluctuations in the trading prices of the Underlying Share will affect the value of the Certificates. Changes may result over time from the interaction of many factors directly or indirectly affecting economic and political conditions in the related countries / member nations, including economic and political developments in other countries. Of particular importance to potential risk are: (i) rates of inflation; (ii) interest rate levels; (iii) balance of payments; and (iv) the extent of governmental surpluses or deficits in the relevant country. All of these factors are, in turn, sensitive to the monetary, fiscal and trade policies pursued by the related countries, the governments of the related countries and member nations (if any), and other countries important to international trade and finance. Government intervention could materially and adversely affect the value of the Certificates. Governments may use a variety of techniques, such as intervention by their central bank or imposition of regulatory controls or taxes, to affect the trading of the Underlying Share. Thus, a special risk in purchasing the Certificates is that their trading value and amount payable could be affected by the actions of governments, fluctuations in response to other market forces and the movement of currencies across borders. The Underlying Share is an emerging markets stock that may be more volatile than the stocks in more developed markets.

CMA Resolution

The CMA Board of Commissioners resolution 2-28-2008 dated 18 August 2008, as amended by the resolution 3-10-2010 dated 16 March 2010, and as may be further amended from time to time (the “CMA Resolution”) allows “Authorised Persons” to enter into derivative transactions with non-resident foreign investors whether institutions or individuals, to transfer the economic benefits of Saudi shares listed on the Saudi Stock Exchange (Tadawul), while Authorised Persons retain the legal ownership of such shares. Pursuant to the conditions specified in the CMA Resolution, Authorised Persons are required to provide certain information on beneficiaries who obtain the economic benefits of Saudi shares.

Representations by Securityholders

In order to ensure that the Issuer, or any of its affiliates that are Authorised Persons for the purpose of the CMA Resolution, can comply with the terms of the CMA Resolution, each holder of the Securities represents and agrees, as a condition of acquiring or holding such Securities that:

- 1. it is fully aware of the terms of the CMA Resolution;*
- 2. it is a “Non-resident foreign investor” for the purpose of the CMA Resolution and, to the best of its knowledge, it is not purchasing the Securities for, on behalf of, or for the benefit of account of any person or entity that is not a “Non-resident foreign investor”;*
- 3. the Issuer or its Affiliates may be requested to disclose to the CMA details of the purchase of the Security (including without limitation, the name of the purchaser (and where applicable the beneficiary) and the relevant country of origin and investor type (e.g. hedge fund, institution, natural person etc), the underlying Security and the number of Securities and the execution price for the transaction, and any other information requested by the CMA), and the holder of the Security hereby consents to any such disclosure;*
- 4. it will provide the Issuer immediately upon any transfer of ownership of the Securities with the details of the transfer (including without limitation, the name of the transferee (and where applicable the beneficiary) and the relevant country of origin and investor type (e.g. hedge fund, institution, natural person etc), the underlying Security and the number of Securities and the execution price for the transaction, and any other information requested by the CMA), in order for the Issuer, or any of its affiliates who are Authorised Persons for the purpose of the CMA Resolution, to make any notifications and/or reports to the Corporate Finance Department of the CMA as required by the terms of the CMA Resolution. The transferor acknowledges that it will provide the above information to the Issuer by email to CMA-notification@morganstanley.com;*

5. it is aware that the CMA may from time to time impose qualitative or quantitative restrictions or any other requirements on products linked to Saudi Arabian Shares or on the ultimate beneficial investors of such products and if any such restrictions or requirements are imposed, then the Issuer may give effect to such restrictions or requirements whether by supplementing, varying or amending all or any of the terms of the Securities or otherwise.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated or implied herein, neither the Issuer nor any of its Affiliates shall be required to take any action or refrain from taking any action in connection with the Security that it reasonably believes could result in non-compliance with or penalties, loss of tax benefits or reporting obligations under the laws of the United States (including, for avoidance of doubt, U.S. laws restricting direct or indirect participation in or compliance with certain foreign boycotts, or requiring it to report to the U.S. government its or its affiliates' direct or indirect participation in or cooperation with such a foreign boycott, as contained in the U.S. Export Administration Act of 1979 and the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, as such laws are amended from time to time) or that it reasonably believes could result in placing it or any of its affiliates in a position of non-compliance with such laws.

Morgan Stanley is not qualified to give legal, tax or accounting advice to its clients and does not purport to do so in this document. Clients are urged to seek the advice of their own professional advisers about the consequences of the proposals contained herein.
